Title of Publication: Penthouse The International Magazine For Men U.S. Edition

Owner/Maker/Publisher: Penthouse International, Ltd.

Format: Magazine

Year and Month of Publication: October 1995

Pursuant to section 37 of the Films, Videos and Publications Classification Act 1993, the Classification Office hereby orders that:

(a) every issue of the above-named serial publication that is published while this order is in force is to be treated as: Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years.

(b) the public display of the issues to which this order applies, or any advertising posters relating to those issues, shall be conditional on:

That when the publication is on public display, the classification given to the publication must be shown on the publication; or any package in which the publication is kept
and
That the publication must be publicly displayed only in a sealed package
and
That the publication must be publicly displayed only in premises, or a part of premises, set aside for the public display of restricted publications (whether or not articles other than restricted publications are also displayed in those premises or that part of those premises).

This order shall come into force the day after the date of its entry in the Register of Classification Decisions, and shall remain in force for a period of one year, unless sooner revoked.

Date 14 February 1996

Chief Censor of Film and Literature: (signed)

OFLC Ref: 9501891

Order No. OFLC /1/96

Notes:

1. While this serial order is in force of the above-named publication, no person shall do any act or thing in relation to any issue to which the order applies (other than an issue that has been classified by the Classification Office or the Film and Literature Board of Review) that would be an offence against any of the sections 123 to 129 of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 if that issue were an objectionable publication or a restricted publication, as the serial order may require.

2. The Classification Office may include, as part of the serial order, conditions on the public display of issues to which the order applies, or any advertising posters relating to those issues. While the serial order is in force, no person shall do any act or thing in relation to any such issue, or as the case requires, any such advertising poster that would be an offence against section 130 of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 if that issue were a restricted publication and that condition has been imposed pursuant to section 27 of the Act.
